Report (Shell Kalakari)

Department & Venue: Department of Zoology, Maharashtra College, Mumbai

Time: 10.30 AM to 1.00 PM

On the very first day of Parvaaz-2019, department of Zoology under Parvaaz-2019 organized Shell Kalakari event for the degree and junior college students to boost their creativity and to understand the biodiversity in terms of shells. The event was organized on 17th December in the department of Zoology, 6th floor biology lab. Both degree college as well as junior college students participated in the event and presented their models. A variety of shells such as chicken egg shell, coconut shell, groundnut shell, sea-shells were used by the students in order to prepare the models. The judges assessed the models based on certain criterion such as variety of shells used, Innovativeness, creativity, attractiveness and possible utility of model. Three participants from each (degree and junior) were selected and awarded with certificate, trophy and medals by the hands of Principal, Vice-principal and head of the department. Following faculty members were involved in the making event successful.

POSTER COMPETITION ON REMEMBERING WOMEN'S SCIENTISTS

Name of the activity	Poster Competition on remembering women's scientists
Objectives of the activity	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To foster respect for women scientists in general, and women in particular, as crucial components of society, equal to males in every discipline. • To help students improve their ability to communicate perceptively (matching their explanation to their audience) and concisely, which is a crucial workplace skill. • To enhance the students' participative approach, to build their morale that they can also be a part of the competition, and to minimize their stage fright. • To encourage students' creativity in designing posters in such a way that they can put large amounts of information in a concise style and convey it to the public in a clear manner.
Brief description of activity	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • We purposefully chose the theme "Remembering Women's Scientists" to foster gender-equality ideals in students by educating them on the extraordinary contributions of women scientists. • Both hand-made as well as e-posters were allowed so as to COVID-19 pandemic impact. • In total, 18 participants (6 junior + 12 degree) used the online approach to present their posters. • Posters were assessed individually for the junior and degree categories, and the first three winners were announced.

REPORT ON NATIONAL LEVEL ONLINE QUIZ ON GENDER EQUALITY

Name of the activity	National level online quiz on Gender Equality
Objectives of the activity	<ul style="list-style-type: none">To bring awareness among both male and female students about gender discrimination, gender disparity and gender differences.
Date	24 th January to 26 th January 2021
Class/ participant/level	Students of all institutions
No. of participants/beneficiaries	Male = 261	Female = 804	Total = 1065

Gender equality is not only a fundamental human right, but a necessary foundation for a peaceful, prosperous and sustainable world. Education plays a key role in challenging gender based violence and unequal societies. So, a national level online quiz competition was organised by the Internal Complaints Committee and Women Development Cell of Maharashtra College of Arts, Science and Commerce for the students of all institutions. The objective of the quiz was to bring awareness among both male and female students about gender discrimination, gender disparity and gender differences. Many times students have the misconceptions on the above terms. The quiz help to clear these doubts among the students especially girl students. Gender is a cultural product of the society and women from the time of birth she is been controlled by the hegemonic patriarchy of the society. Girl students are socialized in such a manner that they don't find these gender disparity or discrimination exploitative.

The online quiz was open from 24th January to 26th January 2021 and a Google form link was provided to register and participate in the quiz. The link was circulated to different colleges, students & teachers through WhatsApp & Telegram groups. The quiz was open for all and without any registration fees. Through the quiz the ICC Committee wanted to make the students aware of their civil rights, laws that protect their human rights and the ICC mechanism that is established in the college to protect them from mental and sexual abuse.

1065 students (804 girls and 261 boys) participated in this quiz and they got the result immediately after finishing it. This Quiz was a great success and received tremendous response from participants of different colleges and different streams from New Delhi, Patna, Karnataka, Chennai, Kerala, Uttar Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh and Haryana. E-Certificates were issued to the participants scoring 60 % and above in this quiz and mailed on their registered E- mail ID. 847 E-Certificates were mailed to successful participants from 1065 responses. The feedback indicated that 53.3 % participants found the quiz to be excellent and 38. 4 % participants found it to be good in terms of knowledge gained.
