Objectives of the activity	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Visit Dosti House's library and other resources.</li> <li>• to promote awareness on black women entrepreneurs</li> </ul>
Date	30 th January 2023
Class/ participant/level	students of all classes
No. of participants/beneficiaries	Male = 07	Female = 31	Total = 38

The English Literary Association and Internal Committee in collaboration with Dosti House, Your American Space, organized a program to promote awareness on black women entrepreneurs. Prof. Shanti Polamuri and Prof. Rehana Vadgama accompanied the students to Dosti House. 38 students from Degree College of Maharashtra college participated in this event.

The program started at 11.15 am. A documentary titled 'She Did That' was screened for the students. It depicted the struggles and passionate pursuits of black women entrepreneurs. The documentary revolved around the lives of 04 African-American women entrepreneurs who survived racial and gender discrimination but were still persistent about their careers. The inspiring narratives left the students spell bound and they were highly motivated. Sita Raiter, Deputy Cultural Attaché, PD Mumbai initiated a discussion about the documentary and was pleased to see the students eagerly participating in an interactive discussion. The students suggested some movies from parallel Indian cinema that portray empowered women. At the end of the event, Ms. Sita Moopnar, Director of Dosti House, introduced the students to the Library Resources available online and offline that are available for all the members of the library. Students were given a tour of the library and offered discounted membership. The program concluded with a Vote of Thanks by Prof. Shanti Polamuri.
